WILSON'S FIANCEE BUTT SPENT $5263 WELL KNOWN HERE M'PHERSON $5957

Is Widow of Former College Student who was a Nephew of Mrs. Valentine of Springs Avenue. Friends Knew of Rumored Engagement.

Unusual interest attaches locally to the announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Galt, of Washington, and President Wilson which was made public Wednesday evening. Mrs. Galt is known here, and she is the widow of Norman R. Galt, a member of the class of 1885 at Gettysburg College, who had a wide circle of friends in Gettysburg while attending the institution, many of whom remember him well.

He was a nephew of Mrs. M. Valentine, of Springs avenue, who this morning received an announcement of the engagement; and he was a brother of Sterling Galt, editor of the Emmitsburg Chronicle.

After leaving Gettysburg College he became associated with his father in the large Galt jewelry store in Washington in which business he engaged until the time of his death eight years ago.

Mrs. Galt's marriage to Norman Galt occurred 20 years ago, and after his death she bought out the interests of the other Galt brothers and is now known as sole owner of the flourishing firm which is conducted by her brother.

Acquaintances of the Galt family, living here, have known for some time of the existing intimacy between President Wilson and Mrs. Galt and they believed several weeks ago that the engagement would be announced before long. Mrs. Galt is a woman of charming personality and her friends here are delighted over the news of the engagement.

Interesting Comparison in Sums Spent for Various Items. Printing, Advertising, and Postage Vary Greatly in Two Accounts.

According to their statements filed with Clerk of the Courts Olinger, D. P. McPherson Esq. spent $5957.96 in his campaign for nomination at the recent primaries, while J. L. Butt Esq. spent $5263.99. Tuesday was the last day for filing the accounts. William McSherry Esq., the other candidate, filed his statement last week and gave $882.57 as his total expenses.

While Mr. Butt's account is given as expended entirely by himself, with the exception of an appropriation to the head of his campaign in Fulton County, the bulk of the money spent in furthering Mr. McPherson's campaign was turned over to the "McPherson Non-Partisan Judicial Committee" and E. P. Sachs, treasurer of that committee, filed a separate statement of his expenditures.

The appropriations of Mr. McPherson to that committee made a total of $4278.50, which was disbursed in amounts ranging from $3 to $175 to individual workers, for poll books, dissemination of information, automobile hire and other expenses incident to the election. In Mr. Sachs' account there are over three hundred separate items, most of them for $10 or less.

Mr. McPherson's own account, in addition to telling of the contributions to the committee conducting his campaign, tells of an appropriation of $568.09 to Peter Morton, his representative in Fulton County. For advertising and printing $556.56 was spent, the largest sums being $226.45 to the Gettysburg Star and Sentinel and $110.00 to the Adams County Independent. For postage he spent $354.74 and for traveling and personal expenses $93.07. The small balance remaining was paid out in clerk hire and other small items.

While the total amount of Mr. Butt's expenditures is almost $700 below those of Mr. McPherson, he spent more than three times as much for advertising and printing as did Mr. McPherson. The total for this purpose was $1744.44. Of this amount the Gettysburg Compiler received $929.00, and the Adams County Independent was next with $410.57. Mr. Butt's postage bill was $667.03, almost double that of his opponent. His appropriation to his Fulton County manager was somewhat higher than that of Mr. McPherson, the total paid to C. B. Stevens being $788.75.

The balance of his account is made up of items varying from $1.00 to $200 for clerical work, making poll books, watchers at the election, automobile hire, securing signers to his petition, personal traveling expenses and other expenditures.

Neither candidate, in his account, tells of receiving any contributions to further his campaign.

ADMISSION FREE TO ALL FARMERS

Famous Painting of Pickett's Charge May be Viewed by All Visitors to Gettysburg on Next Saturday. Other Plans Announced.

The Gettysburg Battle Picture Association has entered heartily into the spirit of Farmers' Day by announcing that on Saturday they will admit free of charge all Adams County farmers and their families to the big cyclorama building on Baltimore street.

The only thing necessary is to call at the Citizens' Trust Company for tickets of admission which will be given for the asking. This should prove a great attraction to the visitors for the day and doubtless many of them will avail themselves of the opportunity to see the great painting.

All those expecting to place exhibits for prizes on Farmers' Day should have them at the places indicated before nine o'clock in the morning. The judges will start their work shortly afterward, and the merchants wish to have a little time to arrange the exhibits as attractively as possible.

The Highway Department swept Centre Square and the nearby streets on Wednesday to get things cleaned up to receive the several thousand guests who are expected here on Saturday and the town will present its best appearance.

The merchants are preparing attractive window displays, many of them are offering special bargains for that day, and at several places free souvenirs will be given all who call.

CROP REPORT

State Farmers Hold Back with Sowing of Wheat.

The crop summary of Pennsylvania for the week ending October 5, issued by the weather bureau Wednesday is as follows:

"The week was favorable except too cool for the ripening of late corn, considerable of which remains to be cut. Silos are practically all filled, however. Seeding of wheat and rye is progressing, with an average or slightly increased average, but there seems to be a general tendency to sow later than usual to avoid possibility of damage by the Hessian fly. In some sections corn ground is being seeded to wheat. A considerable portion of the crop of late potatoes remains to be dug in the northern counties, and complaints of rotting continue. Pastures are in excellent condition and the water supply is abundant."

BACK FROM EUROPE

Chicago Newspaper Men Stop here for Short Time.

A Stutz roadster which passed through Gettysburg on its way to Chicago attracted no little attention here this morning. W. H. Durborow and I. G. Reese occupied the machine. They are newspaper men who spent the past six months in Germany and portions of the war zone where they gathered data for a series of articles and also took 16,000 feet of moving picture films. They told a number of remarkable stories during their short stop here, one of which was that they had covered 5000 miles and paid as much as $1.25 a gallon for gasoline.

GETTYSBURG GIRL WON FIRST PRIZE

In Competition, not only with Girls, but also with Older Guardians. Local Girl Gets Award for Best Description of Day Outdoors.

Miss Nellie Warner, a Gettysburg girl, and a member of the Monocisee Camp Fire, has been awarded the first prize of $10.00 offered by Dr. Luther H. Gulick, of New York City, president of the national organization of Camp Fire Girls, for "the most reproducible account of an outdoor party" given by girls and boys. Miss Ella Gilliland, guardian of the Monocisee Camp Fire, has received this letter from Dr. Gulick:

Miss Nellie Warner,
Care of Miss Ella Gilliland,
Gettysburg, Pa.

My dear Miss Warner,
I am happy to enclose my personal check for ten dollars, first prize for outdoor article which you submitted, entitled "Our Treasure Hunt." I hope to be able to use it in part, or in whole, in Wohelo. With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
Luther M. Eulick.

The topic of which young Miss Warner treated was the hunt conducted last spring by John H. Keller, Scoutmaster, and the guardians of the various camp fires, in which all the boys and girls of Gettysburg belonging to the two organizations participated. The hunt was conducted in the vicinity of Rock Creek, McAllister's Dam, and the York Pike and the course of the hunt was followed by means of special signs and symbols placed on the rocks, trees, and fences.

The contest in which Miss Warner entered so successfully was open both to the girls and the guardians, of which there are thousands in this country, and all of whom were eligible to compete. Gettysburg will accordingly take special pleasure in this honor accorded to her.

"Wohelo", in which the article is to appear is the monthly magazine of the Camp Fire Girls.

PAINFULLY BURNED

Herbert Krumrine Has Left Hand and Arm Scalded with Steam.

Herbert Krumrine, night watchman at the Littlestown Silk Mill, met with a serious accident while performing his duties. While working at the fire box the union of the blow-off pipe burst, and the steam, carrying the coal gas with it, poured through the fire box with sufficient force to knock Mr. Krumrine down. He managed to get out of the reach of the steam and gas, but not until his left hand and arm were scalded through to the bone in places, as well as other portions of his body.

He went to the office of a physician who gave him the necessary treatment.

ULTIMATUM IS SENT TO SERBIA

Bulgaria Demands Concessions Concerning Macedonia.

RUMANIA FORTIFIES BORDER

Bulgars Massed on Serbian Border Ready to Strike at Expected Rejection of Terms.

Petrograd, Oct. 7.—Bulgaria has rejected the Russian demands and has sent an ultimatum to Serbia concerning Macedonia, according to information which has reached the Serbian Archimandrite Michael, says a Moscow telegram to the Bourse Gazette. Bulgaria demands that Serbia reply to the ultimatum within twenty-four hours. It is expected that she will ignore or reject the Bulgarian demands and that Bulgarian armies, already massed on the Serbian frontier, will attack at once.

The Bulgarian consul at Petrograd, M. Kamazyref, departed by way of Finland.

The Russian minister has notified Premier Radoslawoff of rupture of a diplomatic relations between the two countries.

Russian interests in Bulgaria have been confided to the Dutch charge d'affaires.

Military action against Bulgaria, however, is not contemplated unless the latter attacks Serbia or takes other measures clearly inimical to the interests of the entente allies.

It is understood the British and French ministers at Sofia have received instructions to leave Bulgaria, if Russia severs diplomatic relations with that country.

French Will Ignore Greek Crisis

Paris, Oct. 7.—The landing of French troops at Salonika and their prompt despatch northward across Greek territory to the Serbian frontier will proceed without regard to the cabinet crisis at Athens.

Rumania Rushing Troops to Border

London, Oct. 7.—While the resignation of Premier Venizelos in Greece has been a severe blow to allied hopes, Athens advices indicate that Rumania is preparing to take a hand in the Balkan tangle in opposition to Bulgaria and the Teutonic allies.

Rumania is reported to be hurrying despatching troops to the Bulgarian frontier, and otherwise taking extraordinary military measures. Giorgevo, on the Danube, forty miles south of Bucharest, across the river from Bulgaria, is being fortified. Rumanian officers of Bulgarian origin are being transferred to interior posts. Young reserve officers have been called upon and reserves who were to have been disbanded are being kept with the colors.

According to a despatch from Athens, Turkish forces have arrived in Bulgaria and are moving to Varna and Burgas to resist the landing of Russian forces. Turkey has been asked by Bulgaria for reinforcements. It is said.

Mr. Venizelos resigned office when informed by King Constantine that he would not support the premier's announced policy in the Balkan crisis. The resignation was accepted. The sittings of the chamber have been suspended.

Athens is reported to be a scene of wild excitement. After his terse interview with the king, in which there was the plainest speaking, the premier proceeded to the chamber. His announcement of his resignation led to a scene of great disorder in the chamber.

Outside of the chamber there were many demonstrations of protest. While some of the crowds that gathered cheered for the allies, the demonstrations were chiefly pro-Venizelos rather than pro-entente.

FRANCIS JOSEPH VERY ILL

Crown Prince is Reported to Have Been Summoned to Vienna.

Rome, Oct. 7.—It is said on good authority here that Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria is dangerously ill and that the Austrian crown prince has been called to Vienna.

In addition to the heir to the throne it is said that Baron von Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, and Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier, also have been called to the capital.

The news, it is stated, has been kept secret up to this time for fear of the influence it might have upon the international situation.

Fired 2,000,000 Shells, Says Critic Berlin, Oct. 7.—The allies fired 2,000,000 shells in preparing for their offensive movement against the Germans on the western front, writes Herr Stekemann, a military expert of Berne. More than thirty divisions of troops were used in the storm attacks against the German works.

T. ST. JOHN GAFFNEY

GAFFNEY SENDS RESIGNATION

Friends of Consul Plan Fight to Influence President.

Washington, Oct. 7.—The state department announced that the resignation of T. St. John Gaffney, consul at Munich, Germany, had been received. No date was specified for the resignation to take effect.

Complaint had been lodged against Gaffney by Americans who alleged that he had been pro-German to an extent that interfered with his usefulness. Gaffney's friends intend to make a fight to have President Wilson decline to accept the resignation.

PRESIDENT WILSON TO WED MRS. GALT

Formally Announces Engagement to Washington Widow.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Woodrow Wilson, the president of the United States, announced his engagement to Mrs. Norman R. Galt, of Washington. The date of the wedding has not been fixed, but it probably will take place in December, at the home of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Galt comes from a widely known old Virginia family. She is a daughter of the late Dr. George Bolling, and lives with her mother, on Twentieth street. Mrs. Galt is a personal friend of Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, a cousin of President Wilson, and has attended the majority of the White House receptions and parties within the past year.

Members of the president's family have known for months that Mrs. Galt and President Wilson were contemplating matrimony and the affair is acceptable to them.

Mrs. Ellen Louise Axsen Wilson, the president's wife, died August 6, 1914. She was fifty-four years old, and the mother of three daughters, two of whom are married.

JOHN D. JR. RUNS FOR LIFE

Financier Nearly Walks Into Blasts About to Explode.

Sundance, Wyoming, Oct. 7.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., ran a foot race with death and won.

He had insisted on going directly into the heart of the open face workings where a whole mountain is being blasted away. The dynamite crew not knowing the visitors were near lighted fuses of nearly fifty enormous blasts.

The New Yorker was almost into the pit when the miners hiding in their bomb-proof shelters saw him and shouted frantically for him to run. Rockefeller, with his secretary, Charles O. Heydt, and W. L. Mackenzie-King at his heels fled at top speed backward across the steep mountain side. He had barely crawled underneath the trucks of a steel car when the blasts went off. The car was heavily bombarded.

ALLIES MAKE NEW RUSH AT GERMANS

French Attack in Artois and Champagne.

BERLIN CLAIMS REPULSE

Artillery Actions Are Reported Along the Entire Western Front—British Shelling Belgian Coast.

London, Oct. 7.—The allies have renewed their offensive drive on the western front after a violent artillery preparation along the entire line, particularly in Artois and Champagne.

The French attacked near Neuville St. Vaast, north of Arras, and along the entire Champagne front, but these attacks, the Berlin war office says, were repulsed. The French, however, claim to have pushed ahead in these new operations on their front in northern France. The German official statement says:

"A French hand grenade attack on the hill north of Neuville was repulsed."

"In the Champagne the French attempted to resume the offensive, on the front of their former attack, with heavy artillery fire which increased to the greatest intensity during the afternoon. The enemy hoped to prepare our positions for storming in a general attack he intends making. Simultaneously he was getting his troops ready for the attack along the entire front."

"Under our artillery fire directed on the enemy's points of departure the French were only successful at certain points in bringing their troops forward for the attack. Wherever they did advance they were driven back again with heavy losses."

"Repeated rushes on the high road from Somme-Py to Souain broke down completely. North and northeast of Beauséjour farm and northwest of Ville-Sur-Tourbe their attacks were entirely unsuccessful."

Artillery actions along almost the entire western front are recorded by the French war office. The Artois district these artillery exchanges have continued with particular violence in the vicinity of the forest of Givenchy. The British fleet is almost continuously bombarding the German positions on the coast of Belgium.

The text of the French official communication follows:

"The bombardment in which both sides have been taking part has continued in the Artois district. It was particularly severe to the south of the forest of Givenchy. We have made some progress with hand grenades in the connecting trenches to the south-west of the chateau of La Folle."

"There has been reported from the remainder of the front nothing more than artillery fighting in which both sides took part, particularly in the Champagne district, between the Meuse and the Moselle; to the north of Flirey, and along the front in Lorraine, in the vicinity of Leintrey, Gondrexon and Domèvre."

DROP MURDER CHARGE

Wilkes-Barre Police Lay Woman's Death to Suicide Pact.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 7.—Verifying most facts of a statement made by Charles Heckman, of Easton, to the effect that Mrs. Nelson Davis, with whom he eloped from Easton to this city, and with whom he attempted to carry out the suicide pact here last Sunday, the police dropped murder charges against the man. Heckman deserted an invalid wife to elope with Mrs. Davis, whose husband is said to be a cripple.

Late Sunday, Mrs. Davis was found dead in a room at a local boarding house, while Heckman, in the same room, was unconscious as a result of having swallowed poison. The latter still is confined to a hospital.

CRAMPS' BID LOWEST

Will Build Three U. S. Destroyers for $835,000 Each.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Bids opened by the navy department for six torpedo boat destroyers, numbers 69 to 74, brought proposals ranging from $335,000 to $915,000.

The lowest was $835,000 each for three 30-knot vessels, submitted by William Cramp & Sons, Philadelphia. $17,500 each to be added for Pacific delivery. The same company had alternative bids of $842,000 each for three vessels, or $852,000 for two vessels, for delivery within twenty months.

Congress fixed the maximum cost of the boats, exclusive of guns and armor, at $925,000.

Mrs. George D. Widener Weds Philadelphia, Oct. 7.—Mrs. George D. Widener, of this city, whose husband perished on the Titanic three years ago last April, was married in Boston to Dr. Alexander Hamilton Rice, Boston physician and explorer. The ceremony was performed in Emmanuel Episcopal church by Bishop Lawrence.

Colored Woman Leaves $40,000 Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 7.—Mary Jane Reeder, probably the wealthiest colored woman in Maryland, died here, aged 91 years. She owned property valued at about $40,000. Her home was on thequest residential street in the city.

NEW RUSSIAN DRIVE ON BUKOWINA LINE

Attack Austrians Near the Rumanian Border.

Berlin, Oct. 7.—A despatch from Czernowitz, reports that Russian forces have made a violent attack on the Austrians along the Bessarabian frontier, northeast of the city.

The attack is said to have been made along the River Pruth, which the Russians attempted to cross at one place by swimming.

The despatch states that the Russians made five assaults without success, and that many of them were drowned.

Storms Raging in Poland

Petrograd, Oct. 7.—Severe snow storms are now raging in the Baltic provinces, where Field Marshal von Hindenburg's campaign against Riga and Dvinsk has thus far completely failed.

Petrograd military experts said that the German efforts to make these two cities their winter quarters had apparently collapsed.

The official reports of operations along the entire front from the Baltic to Bukowina show a slackening in activity. While this in a measure is due to the storms in the north and heavy rains on the south wing, it is believed here that the Germans have withdrawn a great part of their forces for the Serbian campaign and for operations in the western theatre.

WOULD READJUST TARIFF

Trade Commission to Ask Congress to Finance Investigations.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Increased appropriations for investigations into trade conditions abroad will be recommended to congress by the federal trade commission in December.

Joseph E. Davies, chairman of the commission, discussed with President Wilson the estimates for the fiscal year, and it was agreed that approximately $195,000 should be sought for the commission.

The president is giving close attention to proposals for protecting American business at the conclusion of the European war. Investigations of the trade commission are expected to result in a recommendation that existing laws be amended so as to allow manufacturers to utilize common selling agencies abroad.

It was indicated also in well informed official circles that the president was willing that readjustments should be made in the tariff if they are found necessary.

Wilson Pardons Dying Counterfeiter

Washington, Oct. 7.—Because the prisoner is dying, President Wilson committed to expire at once the two year sentence imposed May 21, 1914 on James M. Baker, of Denver. Baker was convicted of conspiring to counterfeit United States coins.

LONDON TAKING ON SWIFTER PACE

War Makes English Capital Quite Like Chicago.

WHOLE NATION GETS BUSY.

Women Drive Vans and Operate Elevators—Merchants Find No Demand For Luxuries or Expensive Articles. London Walks Rapidly, Slow Gait of Other Days Is Gone.

"There are no loafers in England," said Harry Gordon Selfridge, London department store merchant, who arrived in Chicago for a week's visit and business trip, summing up the effect of the war upon the life of the English nation.

"Everywhere extravagance has ceased," Mr. Selfridge went on. "Sales of the more elaborate and costly textiles and articles of social use have nearly ceased. There is a great falling off in the demands made upon the seamstresses for new frocks, because, first, there is a cessation of prosperous purchasing and, secondly, because there is no call for new clothing. "The social activities of the people have stopped. There are no hunting or shooting parties. Instead the social instinct has turned into new channels. The common interest in the war has democratized the people wonderfully. The so-called division by class is not apparent.

"Ten and garden parties of other days are now entertainments for soldiers, both those on home leave and the wounded.

Everybody Willing to Aid. "You can't describe what a beautiful thing is the national haste to care for, nurse, entertain and shower kindness on the wounded soldiers. People have a serious aspect when they come into the store or appear about the streets."

"Is that," he was asked, "because of apprehension as to the outcome of the war?"

"Oh, no, no, no, by no means," Mr. Selfridge said. "It is because every one is busy, has something to do. There are no loafers in England. There is no unemployment. There is no idleness among the social classes. Only in occasional slack seasons, as for the dressmakers or theatrical folk, is there idleness, and most of these people are turning their hands to other tasks.

"The texture of the human fabric of the streets is changed. Women predominate, and men in khaki are everywhere. But the motion of the street shows the greatest change. It is not the slow gait of other days. London walks rapidly. It is going somewhere to do something now and is quite like Chicago in that respect.

Women Driving Vans. "There aren't the Americans and territorialists in London that there were in other years. The city is filled now with provincial people, who take the place in numbers of foreigners. We miss Americans greatly because they give a touch and go attitude to the city's life.

"I have a few women van drivers. The work is a little hard, but they want to do it and are doing it. Our lift operators are girls—much more efficient and faithful too. And our carriage openers and attendants are girls. "Things you hear much of here are not so much talked of over there. The strike situation was 'overpublished.' The conscription talk and all that is political and journalistic, I think."

Fruit as Food.

Fruit is a most important food, not so much on account of the nourishment it contains, for it is nine-tenths water, but because of its valuable acids and organic salts. It is nature's medicine. That is why some say they "cannot eat fruit." It physics them—cleans house. These people should persevere until they are able to eat fruit. Then they will know that their blood is comparatively pure.

Exercise.

No amount of care in regard to the building of the body by food will supplant daily exercise, in maintaining health and efficiency. There must be elimination as well as alimentation—outgo as well as intake. Waste must be burned up, or cinders will accumulate and clog the blood. The more you consume the more you must expend.

Where English River Rises.

The Duddon, one of the most picturesque of the English rivers, oozes up through a bed of moss near the top of Wrynose Fell, a desolate solitude, yet remarkable for its huge masses of protruding crags and the varied and vivid colors of the mosses watered by the stream.

Ink Stains.

To remove ink stains from cloth or other absorbent substance, dissolve four ounces of citric acid in two quarts of water that has been previously boiled and cooled. Then add six or eight ounces of a strong, strained solution of borax.

Ominous.

"What did the chief of the cannibal tribe say when the pretty girl missionaries were brought into his presence?" "Smacked his lips and said: 'Some chickens.'"—Baltimore American.

Luncheons For Children.

GROWING school children will thrive on (1) vegetable soup, which is particularly appetizing at this season when so many fresh vegetables are obtainable; peanut butter sandwiches, fresh fruit. (2) Baked beans, lettuce sandwiches and bananas. (3) Split pea soup (peas soaked over night), potato or some other vegetable salad, fresh fruit. (4) Plain omelet, lettuce or sliced tomatoes, boiled rice pudding. (5) Cold meat sandwiches, one green vegetable, fig bars and hot cocoa or milk with each luncheon.

Sandwich Fillings.—Chop cold boiled haddock (be careful to get out all bones), chop an onion very fine and add salad dressing to make as thin as desired. Use for sandwiches or put in glass jelly tumbler, to be eaten with bread and butter. Make a curry sauce to use with chopped fish or meat. Any kind of boiled meat, lamb, beef, veal or ham can be mixed with salad dressing. Use onion with beef, pickled cucumber with lamb, celery with veal or chicken. Chop peanuts and mix with salad dressing, or spread bread with peanut butter; then slice ham, thin and lay the circles over the bread. Cover with another slice of bread spread with peanut butter.

Scrambled egg put between slices of bread—graham, rye or brown bread—will be liked, and if bacon fried crisp and chopped fine is added it will taste better and also add more nourishment. Spread bread with jam or jelly and sprinkle with chopped peanuts. Try the old fashioned crackers and cheese.

Nut Sandwiches.—Mix equal parts of grated cheese and chopped English walnuts (other nuts can be used), season with salt and pepper and spread between thin slices of bread slightly buttered. When meat sandwiches are desired cold beef or veal loaf or deviled ham makes most excellent ones.

Date Sandwiches.—Stone and chop the dates until soft enough to make into a paste and spread between slices of bread and butter.

HAIR AND SCALP
NEED DAILY CARE

BEAUTIFUL HAIR IS WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.
If you value the appearance of your hair you should treat your scalp as often and well as you brush your teeth and rub into the scalp pores twice daily a little Parisian Sage. This treatment is not a mere "hair tonic." It is bottled nourishment for the hair roots and it is simply wonderful what an improvement its use for even a week will make in the appearance of anyone's hair. It never injures, is delightfully cool and pleasant to the scalp and takes out the dull, lifeless look in the hair, making it soft, fluffy, glossy and beautiful. Two or three applications remove every trace of dandruff, and daily use will prevent its return. The Peoples' Drug Store and the leading druggists everywhere can furnish you with Parisian Sage—it costs but a trifle.

MR. WILSON FOR DEFENCE

Says Our Armament Should be Very Adequate.

THE NAVY ADVISORS MEET

The Whole Nation Convinced We Should be Prepared, the President
Tells Them.

Washington, Oct. 7.—President Wilson outlined his attitude toward the national defense question to the new advisory board of the navy, following the meeting of that body for organization.

The whole nation, the president said, was "convinced that we ought to be prepared, not for war, but for defense, and very adequately prepared."

The president received the board, headed by Thomas A. Edison, after a preliminary conference with Secretary of the Navy Daniels and naval officials. The board later went with Secretary Daniels to the naval proving grounds, at Indian Head, Md., on an inspection tour.

"There is little I can say," President Wilson began, "except to give you a cordial welcome and to express my great pleasure in this occasion of layingmen with the government. But I do want to say this:

"I think the whole nation is convinced we should be prepared, and that preparation for defense is not merely a matter that the army and navy can take care of, but one in which we must have the co-operation of the best brains and knowledge of the country, outside the official service of the government as well as inside. For my part, I feel it is only in the spirit of a true democracy that we get together to lend such voluntary aid, the sort that comes from interest, from a knowledge of the varied circumstances that are involved in handling a nation.

"I want you to feel, those of you who are coming to the assistance of the professional officers of the government, that we have a very serious purpose, that we have not asked you to associate yourselves with us except for a definite and practical purpose, to get you to give us your best independent thoughts as to how to make ready for any duty that may fall upon the nation.

"I do not have to expound it to you. You know as well as I do the spirit of America is one of peace, but of independence. It is a spirit that is profoundly concerned with peace, because it can express itself best only in peace. It is the spirit of peace and good will and of human freedom, but it is also the spirit of a nation that is self-conscious, that knows and loves its mission in the world, and that knows it must command the respect of the world.

"So it seems to me we are not working as those who would change anything of America, but only as those who would safeguard everything in America. I know you will enter into conference with officers of the navy in that spirit and with that feeling, and it makes me proud, gentlemen, that the busy men of America, the men who stand at the front of their professions, should be willing in this way to associate themselves voluntarily with the government in the task in which it needs all sorts of expert and serious advice.

"Nothing should be done in this by any single group of persons—everything ought to be done by all of us united, and I welcome this association in the most serious and grateful spirit."

MR. WILSON'S VOTE GOES FOR SUFFRAGE

President Announces His "Private Convictions."

Washington, Oct. 7.—President Wilson will vote for the woman suffrage state constitutional amendment in New Jersey, his home state, at the special election, October 19.

He said he would vote, not as the leader of the Democratic party, but as a private citizen.

Mr. Wilson said he believed the question should not be made a party issue and should be decided by the states, not the national government.

The following statement was given out at the White House:

"I intend to vote for woman suffrage in New Jersey because I believe that the time has come to extend that privilege and responsibility to the women of the state; but I shall vote, not as the leader of my party in the nation, but only upon my private conviction as a citizen of New Jersey, called upon by the legislature of the state to express his conviction at the polls. I think that New Jersey will be greatly benefited by the change.

"My position with regard to the way in which this great question should be handled is well known. I believe it should be settled by the states and not by the national government, and that in no circumstances should it be made a party question, and my view has grown stronger at every turn of the agitation."

Secretaries Garrison, McAdoo, Redfield and Wilson, who will also vote on the question in the near future, have declared in favor of equal suffrage.

Medical Advertising DANGERS OF A COLD

Gettysburg People Will Do Well to Heed Them.

Many had cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poison-laden blood and backache, headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Gettysburg resident's example:

Harry J. Tawney, 9 Steinwehr Ave., Gettysburg, says: "My back ached almost constantly and at times I could hardly get around. The kidney secretions gave me much annoyance by their irregularity in passage and I was lame and stiff. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the People's Drug Store, positively and permanently cured me. I have been in good health ever since. I know of a number of other people who have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and in each case benefit has been had."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Tawney had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

(Medical Advertising) STOMACH MISERY QUICKLY VANISHES

Your money back if you want it is the way in which The People's Drug Store, the popular druggists are selling Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy.

This is an unusual plan, but Mi-o-na has so much merit and is so almost invariably successful in relieving all forms of indigestion that they run but little risk in selling under a guarantee of this kind.

Do not be miserable or make your friends miserable with your dyspepsia. Mi-o-na will help you. If it doesn't, tell The People's Drug Store that you want your money back and they will cheerfully refund it.

A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon start you on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food.

Mi-o-na has been so uniformly successful that every box is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. What fair proposition could be made?

The People's Drug Store give their personal guarantee of "money back if you want it" with every box of Mi-o-na that they sell. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

Was It Spirit Or Illusion?

By F. A. MITCHEL

There is nothing so strong in nature as the chains that draw two persons together, and nothing better typifies it than two vines that originally could have been broken, apart by a child's delicate fingers, each becoming after a lapse of say, half a century, as large as an athlete's biceps and much harder to bend.

The most remarkable case of this kind came under my observation. I will relate the story.

Donald Gregory, when he was too young to remember the fact, became a playmate of a little girl about his own age, Ella Marston. Their parents' places were side by side, and the children, neither having brother or sister, were together all day. Then they went to the same kindergarten and afterward to the same school. Their first and only separation was when Donald went to college. They pined for each other, and he neglected his studies to write her long letters, receiving equally long replies. When the first examinations came on, though a bright fellow, he failed. This ended his college career. He returned to his love and was never again separated from her till half a century later, when death claimed her.

They were married when the groom was nineteen, the bride eighteen. A son was born to them and a daughter. The former lived; the latter died in infancy. Till the son came to manhood he remained with his parents. Then he broke away to engage in business at another location.

Even in their youth they had few intimate associates and after coming to middle age dropped away from anything social. Those who knew them wondered at this, for they were both attractive and popular. Efforts to get them into social undertakings always failed.

Mrs. Gregory died at seventy. It was a year after this that I made the acquaintance of their son, now a man of nearly fifty. Strange it is that with his parents' happy married life before him he never married. When his mother died he persuaded his father to come to live with him. I had made George Gregory's acquaintance some time before this, and when his father appeared on the scene George and I, both bachelors, were intimate, I being at his house frequently.

When I was introduced to his father I saw a handsome old gentleman with a florid complexion and white hair and mustache. It struck me that if I were a woman I would fall in love with him no matter what was his age. George told me of the close relationship between his father and his late mother, and when the latter died he feared his father would lose his reason. But his father seemed to settle down to an acceptance of his fate and in a measure apparently ceased to grieve. His son noticed something about him which he communicated to no one. I discovered it for myself.

One day when going to George Gregory's house I saw his father putting his night key into the door. He opened it, stepped back as if waiting for some one to enter, then went in himself. The matter made but little impression on me till later I heard the old gentleman talking to himself in the library. At first, thinking that he was reading aloud, I permitted myself to overhear him. I soon became aware that he was talking to some one whom he called "my dear." The two episodes together set me to wondering, and I narrated them to his son. George sighed and said:

"So you have noticed it. I have known that of which you have seen evidence ever since father came to live with me. He ever has my mother with him—just how I don't know. Whether he sees her spirit, whether he fancies that it is present with him, whether he hears her replies when he talks to her—all this is a puzzle to me. I have often heard him talking to her as you heard him, and he says the same things to her that he was used to saying while she lived, only they are more endearing. He was always during her life as gallant to her as when they were young lovers, and when he fancies she is with him he will not sit while she stands, will not go through a doorway without waiting till she has gone before him. I have seen him come into the house after having been out of an evening and remove her wraps as tenderly as he ever did while she was with him in the flesh. He had a way of sometimes walking with her hand in hand, and since her death I have often seen him swinging his arm through the empty air as I often saw him do it when I was a boy."

"Do you observe," I asked, "whether after apparently being with her he is more or less gloomy?"

"He is never what we call gloomy, though there is a certain sadness always in his eyes. It seems to me that Providence, in whose sight such lover-like lives as were his and my mother's must be acceptable, has made some physical change in his brain which causes an illusion to comfort him till the day shall come when he will be reunited to her."

"Did it ever occur to you," I asked, "that the strong affection between him and your mother has enabled him to see and commune with her spirit?"

"It has," was the reply, "but I don't know."

Since then the same door has closed behind Donald Gregory that closed behind his wife.
